Theorem (2.2.16b). Let A and B bet sets. $A \subseteq (A \cup B)$

Proof. All of the elements in A are a subset of $A \cup B$ by the definition of set union. Therefore it trivially follows that $A \subseteq (A \cup B)$. ∎